Paul Jones and La Fayette.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette.
This account of the meeting of Paul Jones with La Fayette in our city by Baell, which makes part of the unpublished history of Alexandria, is sent to the Gazette as a contribution towards the observance of tonight.

April 24. W. F. C.

The Marquis de La Fayette, with a shipload of supplies, had by a roundabout voyage from passages in Spain, ostensibly to Porto Rico, arrived at the city, South Carolina, I was journeying by a. It happened that South Carolina to yette reached Alexandria Paul Jones, on his isolated plantation, and on at the same tavern, him the Baren other German, Polish and French officers. La Fayette could express himself fairly well in English as could de Kalb, but the others could not. The interpreter was a very poor one. The meeting with Paul Jones took place in consequence of the efforts of La Fayette and de Kalb to straighten out some misunderstanding about the relay of horses. La Fayette himself thus described the incident in a personal reminiscence during his visit to this country in 1824.

"A slender black-haired, black-eyed swarthy gentleman in naval uniform, of the most martial and distinguished bearing approached and said in perfect French:

"Pardieu monsieur, il me semble que, peut-être, je peux vous aider. Et tel cas me communiquez s'il vous plaît."

[Pardieu, sir, perhaps I can aid you. In that case please command my services.]

"Delighted to hear my native tongue so unexpectedly and opportunely spoken, I inform the gentleman who we were, and asked whom I might have the honor to address.

"He replied in French 'I have the honor to be captain of a frigate of the United States navy and my name is Paul Jones, at your service.'

"Profoundly acknowledging his courtesy I at once turned over to Captain Paul Jones the task of composing our difficulties, and instantly discovered that he was a captain in fact as well as by title. The people in Alexandria seemed to know him well. He assumed an air of easy though quite imperious mastery of the situation, and, in a very short time, our cavalcade was ready to set out. He had an appointment to dine that evening with friends in Alexandria, but upon my invitation to join our party he hastily sent a message to cancel the engagement by reason of a sudden and unexpected pressure of public duty of grave importance and journeyed with me to Philadelphia."

Memorial Exercises

All arrangements have been made for the joint memorial exercises to be held tonight in the Masonic Temple by Alexandria-Washington and Andrew Jackson Lodges of Masons in honor of the memory of Admiral John Paul Jones. As has been stated, the exercises will consist principally of eulogies on the great admiral. Admiral Winfield Scott Bailey, United States navy, retired, has accepted an invitation to be present and deliver an address. Grand Master K. Kemper, of Virginia, will preside at the exercises and Mr. C. O. Carlin will deliver the opening address. Admiral Schley will arrive here this evening in the place car of the electric railway. Owing to the limited seating capacity of the lodge room admission will be by card. There will be no banquet. The committee in charge of the arrangements is composed of Messrs. R. W. Arnold, C. H. Calahan, W. A. Moore, Jr., of Alexandria-Washington Lodge, and H. K. Field, C. H. Marshall and Samuel P. Fisher of Andrew Jackson Lodge. The lodge will meet at 7 o'clock this evening.

Expressions of Appreciation.

As was stated at the recent meeting of the Reliance Fire Company at a recent meeting elected Rev. Father R. L. Carne a life member of the organization. Father Carne throughout most of his life was an active member of the old Hydrant Fire Company, occupying various positions in the same. Mr. L. E. Uhler, President of the Reliance Company, has received a letter from Father Carne in which the latter expresses his appreciation of the compliment bestowed upon him by the company. He also calls attention to the fact that it is the duty of all citizens to labor in positions for the public good, and says he knows of none more honorable than those filled by volunteer firemen.

Charter.

The State Corporation Commission has granted a charter to the Samuel J. Prescott Company, Inc., of Alexandria, Va., incorporating—S. J. Prescott, president; H. F. Woodward, secretary and treasurer, both of Washington. Capital stock—maximum, $200,000. Objects and purposes: general contracting business.

Entertainment Tonight.

All preparations have been made by Potomac Lodge, No. 38, I. O. O. F., for the entertainment tonight at 8 o'clock in the hall on north Columbus street. The exercises will be interesting throughout, and all who attend will experience a pleasant evening.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]
Conn. vs. Ferdinand F. Deringer, indicted for forgery; case continued till first day of May term and accused released on bail.

Peter Di Giorgio, a native of Italy, declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States.

A Good Performance.

The Chauncey L. Southern Company opened a three nights' engagement at the Opera House last night in "The Paradise Lost," a three act and drama. Mr. Southern appeared in the title role of Ruben Warner and carried off the honors of the play. His interpretation of the difficult part was most excellent and he was repeatedly applauded. In the second act Mr. Southern's part was of the highest order and he was equal to the occasion in every way. Next in importance in the cast was Miss Evelyn Clark as Margaret Knowlton, who made a beautiful heroine while Mr. J. P. Fucker as Ralph Standish made an excellent heavy man. The comedy parts of Bob Appleton and Cinders were in the hands of Raymond S. Paine and Maybelle Vantassell. Mr. Paine has appeared in this city before, and his acting last night was a credit to his profession, while Miss Vantassell was very good in her part. The other members of the company are all good actors. This company is undoubtedly the best representative company that has appeared in this city for years and, judging from the crowded house last night, will doubtless receive good patronage. There is nothing cheap about these plays except the prices. Tonight the Southern Company will present for the first time in this city the four-act melodrama "The Plunger," with all scenic effects. This play abounds in thrilling situations and good climaxes.

As heretofore stated, the Southern Company will give a matinee on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the benefit of the San Francisco sufferers, the entire proceeds to be sent to that city. The play to be presented will be "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." The show needs no introduction and, as Mr. Southern is a capable actor, a good performance may be looked for.

Reception to Pastor.

There was a large gathering in the M. E. Church South last night to witness the reception tendered to Rev. C. D. Bulla, the new pastor, and the organ recital. The following programme was rendered in a very creditable manner: Organ, "Cradle Song," Schnecker, Mr. W. S. Reiley; prayer, solo, "Garden of Life," Dr. C. E. Outcalt; organ, "Postlude," Rink, Mr. W. S. Reiley; address of Welcome from Church, Mr. H. K. Field; solo, "The Day is Ended," Miss M. Vierkorn; violin solo, "Sextette from Lucie," Mr. A. L. Jamieson; address of welcome from Sunday School, Mr. J. E. Alexander; solo, "The Majesty of the Divine Humiliation," Mr. Kenneth Ogden; violin and clarinet duet, "Sweet Evening Star," Mr. A. L. Jamieson and Mr. E. H. Hill; organ, "Allegretto Grazioso," B. Toms, Mr. W. S. Reiley; address of welcome from Epworth League, Mr. F. J. Pollard; solo, "O Divine Redeemer," Mrs. T. A. Hulfish; response, Rev. C. D. Bulla; organ, Andante, Allegro, 1st Sonata, Mendelssohn, Mr. W. S. Reiley. The reception to the pastor followed.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]
The following cases were disposed of this morning:
Harry Brown, arrested by Officer Jones charged with assaulting and cutting Ella Brown with a knife, had his case continued.
Ernest Sullivan, arrested by Officer Roberts charged with habitual drunkenness, was sent to jail for 20 days.
A white man, arrested by Officers Bettis and Nicholson charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, was fined $10.
Another white man, arrested by the same officers for a similar offense, had his case continued.
Charles Finnel and John Haneborough, arrested by Officers Beach, Lyles, Knight and Arrington charged with assaulting Herbert Hensborough, were dismissed and the complainant fined $5 for disorderly conduct.

Concert and Reading.

The entertainment at Lee Camp Hall last night under the auspices of the Seventeenth Virginia Chapter was great. It was enjoyed by all who attended. The programme, which had been selected with care, was well rendered. The readings by Mrs. Champ Clark and Mrs. A. T. Hanson were brilliant features of the entertainment, while all who participated acquitted themselves admirably. Mrs. Fred Russell rendered a piano solo; Mrs. Harris Franklin a baritone solo; Mrs. Raymond Hulish a solo; Mr. Kenneth Ogden a tenor solo; Dr. Outcalt a baritone solo; Miss Steiner and Miss Armstrong rendered the accompaniments on the piano. Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Hanson were presented with beautiful bouquets at the close of the entertainment.

Death of a Former Resident.

William Newton McVeigh, son of the late Wm. N. McVeigh, a former resident of Alexandria, died suddenly yesterday at the home of his brother, Harvey McVeigh, near Stevensburg, Culpeper county. The deceased spent the greater part of his life in this city, but moved to Richmond several years ago. He was unmarried. The remains arrived here this afternoon on the Southern Railway, and the funeral took place from the Union Station at 3 o'clock. The interment was in Ivy Hill Cemetery, Rev. Edgar Carpenter officiated at the funeral.

Arrest of Assailant.

Several weeks ago Harry Brown assaulted his wife, Ella Brown, with an oyster knife. Had it not been for a correct steel would have received serious if not fatal injuries. Brown made his escape, but reappeared yesterday when he was arrested by Officer Jones. He was brought before the Police Court this morning and committed to jail for a future hearing.

Circuit Court for the County.
[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]
The time of the court was occupied today in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Emma Thompson, colored, indicted for the murder last December of Warner Henderson, also colored.

Bendheim, $5.00; Ben Abramson, $1.50.

The Citizens' National Bank of this city today forwarded $466.10 through the American National Red Cross Association for the benefit of the sufferers of San Francisco, that amount representing the total of contributions to that fund to date.

At a meeting of the Council of Jewish women at the Synagogue last night an appropriation was made for the sufferers from the California earthquake.

George Mason Council, No. 1718, of this city, have sent a check to H. C. Williams, Supreme Regent, at Rome, N. Y., to be used in aiding the sufferers in California.

Personal.

Miss Alice Crawford, who was the guest of Mrs. Charles S. Venable for Easter week, has returned to her home, near Alexandria. Miss Crawford was one of the belles during her stay here. She is very pretty and attractive and she has won for herself a host of admiring friends among the students.—[Charlottesville Progress.]

Mrs. A. C. Weech delivered a temperance address in the Lutheran Church at Woodlawn, Md., on last Saturday night and on Sunday evening she spoke in the M. E. Church in Walkersville, Md.

Mrs. Lola Bernhardt and Mr. Fred Kaus was married Saturday evening at the parsonage of St. Paul's Church by Rev. P. P. Phillips.

The many friends of Mrs. Edward L. Daingerfield will regret to hear that she continues seriously ill at her home on south Washington street.

Mr. Thomas S. Jones, formerly of this city, is now the artist to the Anatomical Department of the Medical College of the University of Missouri.

The friends of Mr. G. L. Booth will tonight present his name to the Common Council as a member of that body to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. T. B. Cochran.

Call for Relief.

Capt. Kosciuszko Kemper, Grand Master of Masons in Virginia, has issued a circular to all Masonic lodges in his jurisdiction, calling attention to the earthquake disaster in California, and calling upon Masons to remember the cardinal principles of the order and come to the help of their distressed brethren in the California jurisdiction.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The City Council meets tonight.

The fish market was almost at a standstill this morning. There were no receipts at Fishtown and prices showed an advancing tendency.

The weather last night was cold with a strong northwest wind. The mercury at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 45°. The temperature became milder today.

Several men engaged in a fierce fight last Saturday night at the western end of King street, during which, it is said, one of the participants drew a pistol.

The funeral of the late Taylor Blunt will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from Woodlawn Church. Rev. Mr. Council will conduct the services.

APPEAL FOR AID.

Alexandria, Va., April 24, 1906.
Having been appointed a committee by the Mayor of our city to solicit contributions for the San Francisco sufferers, we are endeavoring to communicate with every one in the city on this subject, but are being compelled to do the work so hurriedly that we will doubtless fail to communicate with a great many who are desirous of subscribing; hence we wish to state that any member of this committee, named below, will be pleased to receive any contributions.

We trust that the people of our city may respond liberally to this worthy cause.
Yours Respectfully,
